Important information

- A change in the contractual partner does not affect the term of the contract.
- All fees will be collected from the account of the new contractual partner by direct debit authorization, following transfer.
- After the contractual transfer, the previous contractual partner loses all rights and obligations as defined in the assigned contract.
  These will be transferred to the new contractual partner. Where applicable, the change of domain owner must be applied for separately from STRATO GmbH, using the „Change in domain owner" form.
- As current contractual partner, I am aware that I will have no access to the data on the server once I have transferred my contract to the new contractual partner.
- Unclaimed periods will not be reimbursed or offset if you transfer your contract before the regular end of contract.
- Data Privacy Statement:
  As the previous contractual partner, I hereby agree that the future contractual partner will receive access to all data stored in regard to the contract (including previous invoices, undeleted content, emails).)
- If it is not a natural person, the complete company name in accordance with the legal regulations is to be indicated. In addition, we require an extract from the commercial register, trade register, register of associations, VAT certificate or a document that identifies you as a legal entity.
- The address data must include an address within the EU (no P.O. box address).
- The General Terms and Conditions of STRATO GmbH apply as amended, after the change.
  They are available at: www.strato-hosting.co.uk.
- Prices include sales tax.
- Any changes made to this form will be disregarded.
